

Two of Dayton Ohio's five TV stations are Sinclair owned. As if the daily barrage of slanted, slanderous corporate dictated opinion is not bad enough; Miami Valleyians are now going to be subjected to an hour of "Stolen Honor". Adding insult to injury; no commercials! The one time a commercial station imitates a PBS practice it is to foist dreck like this on an undeserving public. I protest most vigorously!

Thank you,
Tim Hornbacker
New Paris, OH